SOCIAL and Four Specials PERSONAL nounce the engagement of their daugh. ter, Emma, to Dr. George Frederic White, of Boston and Worcester, Mass. Dr. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen White, of Boston, and is now connected with the department of chemistry at Clark Univer-sity, in Worcester. The wedding will be celebrated some time early in Sep-

Home Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Alma Gertrude Schutte, daughter of Mrs. Mary Theresa Schutte and the late Richard 1. Schutte, to Robert Harrison Puckett, son of Mrs. Adelaide P. Puckett and the late Chiffney I. Puckett, was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother last Wednesday morning at half-after 10 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Felix F. Kaup, of Sacred Heart Cathedral, and he was assisted by the Rev. Father Charles, O. S. B. The bride wore : white lingerie gown with insets of real lace, and carried a bouquet of entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Richard J. Schutte, who gave her away, and they were met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Leo B. Davis. Franci F. Newhelser, a cousin of the bride played the "Lohengrin" Wedding March as a processional, and "Summer Idyl," by Rothleder, very softly during the cer Decorations were in white and yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Puckett left immediately for a Northern wedding trip, and hosts, will motor to Maine, spending

Miss Crump Honored, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Constable and carried a bouquet of sweet peas aughters, Misses Sarah and Beth, en- match her tertained at cards, at "The Glebe," near Warsaw, on Tuesday evening in honor of their guests, Miss Mary Crump, of Richmond; Misses Elizabeth and Wil-Richmond; Misses Elizabeth and Wil-Richmond; Misses Westers, William Senton the Wedding marches, and "Love's Old the Wedding marches, and "Love's Old the Wedding marches, and Flower and Flower ere artistically arranged upon the was softly rendered during the cere-wn, and progressive euchre was mony. by Miss Hall, of Kentucky, and Miss sided at the punch bowl. her of visitors to Warsaw and neigh- prominent business man of city, but now of Riverside Drive, New Yaughan, of King and Queen.

York, gave the last of a series of luncheons on Thursday of the past week. The house was prettily decerated in growing plants and ferne, and of two weeks to Miss Blanche Davis.

camping party in the mountains of affair given for Miss Mahanes dur-West Virginia. Miss Eleanor Price, of Baltimore, is giving the camping party, and a number of Maryland people are among the guests to be entertained.

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

The Dunlop Mills Richmond Va-

of those NEW PROCESS GAS RANGES in the kitchen this hot weather. Prices from $10.85 up.

Sydnor & Hundley Seventh and Grace Streets.

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed

Freshness."

Tel. Madison 630.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

BIRTHDAY RINGS,

BRACELETS. CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

for Monday

Gowns of fine Crepe, Empire style, with band of wide Swiss insertion and ribbon, neck and sleeves, finished with linen edge and beading; white, pink and blue; sold for $1.50; now. now..... $1,20

Norfolk Middy Blouses of White Galatea, box pleated, back and front, deep yoke and belt, in all white red and navy collars and cuffs; sold for $1.75; now..... $1.00

A lot of Children's Dresses and Rompers of Linen, Percale, and Gingham. trimmed with pipings and bands of contrasting shades; all colors; in check, plaid, stripes and figured patterns; sizes 2 to 6; sold for 75c; now... ane on their return will make their home the rest of the summer on the New in this city.

Ladies' Gauze Vest, fine ribbed, very sheer and elastic, crochet neck and armholes, tape run; regu-lar 15c values; 3 for.....

Goochland Wedding. Mrs. Juliet Chilton Kelth, who has been the guest of friends at Virginia Beach for the month of June and part of July, spent Saturday in Richmond wards, was that of their daughter. with Miss Esther Bryan, en route for Miss Inez Norris Edwards, and Car-Warrenton, Mrs. Keith will join her roll Augustis Gathright, Only the rela-Warrenton. Mrs. Keith will join her foil Augustis Gainright. Only the relationary father, Judge James Keith, and her tives of the bride and groom withrother, Morson Keith, at "Wood-neesed the ceremony, which was perbourne," the home of Mrs. Isham Keith, formed by the Rev. M. B. Melton, of near Warrenton, for the remainder of Richmond, and the house was prettily the heated term. They will not open decorated for the occasion in pink and their house here until some time late white flowers against a background of palms and forms. The palms and ferns. The bride were a lovely hand-embroidered gown and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of Entertnined in Charleston.

Mrs. L. Hamilton entertained at bridge whist last Thursday evening at tended her sister as matron of honor. wore a new of white silk and carried a snewer bounds. affair was given in honor of Miss Carrie Pollock, of Richmond, who is visiting friends in West Virginia for this month.

Work a gown of white silk and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white ewet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Bland, wore pink messaline, draped in chiffon of the same shade tertained at cards, at "The Glebe," near brother of the groom, was best man, and Spottswood Poliard, of King Wil-liam County.

The lawn was well lighted and tables and her attendants. "Annie Laurie" choice instrumental and vocal music cile Edwards and Kathleen Bland pre Beth Constable and Kutzner Rauman. evening Mr. and Mrs. Gathright left

The guests consisted of forty or for Atlantic City and other places of more persons, which included a numinterest in the North, The groom is a Mrs. Incz Merrydew was hostess at a five-hundred party last Monday evening in honor of Miss Peachey E. Tolley, of Dayton, Ohio. There were eight tables playing, and a collation was server later in the evening.

Mrs. P. A. Estes, formerly of this city, but now of Riverside Drive, New York, gave the last of a series of Richmond.

an orchestra played during receiving strong in Norfolk and Miss Hazel Davis Leaving Town.

Miss Elizabeth Bruce Brooke and Norfolk, entertained Miss Armstrong and her guest at a very pretty little Hanover Avenue, left Friday to join a dinner at Virginia Beach, and another the mountains of affair given for Miss Mahanes durations. at which P. Joynes was the summer.

brother, Julian Sydnor, in Akron, Ohio, before returning to her home in this city. At Willoughby.

Among the Richmond people regisered at Willoughby Hotel are: Mrs. Dunstan, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart Jones. Miss Louise Yancey, Miss Mary Traylor, Miss Gay Wilbon, John Blount, Clinton L. Williams, John S. Burnett, B. H. Walker, P. St. George Cooke. In and Out of Town.

Colonel William H. Palmer and Mrs. Ormond Young have gone to the White Sulphur for the remainder of the sum-

Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Beirne, of Louisville, Ky., are visiting relatives in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Woodson have as their guests at their summer home in Bon Air, Mrs. Nannie W. Williams, of Raicign, N. C.; W. J. Eskew and Miss Ruth Eskew, of Charleston, W.

Miss Genevieve Leech is spending several days at Virginia Beach with her sister, Miss Florence Leech.

Mrs. R. B. Hudson, Mrs. Estelle Atkins and her small daughter, Rose Atkins, have returned to their home on Kensington Avenue, after a ten days stay at Ocean View.

Miss Mary Zollicoffer, of this city, is the guest of Miss Mary Gibson Hun-ley, at "Outlook," in Mathews County.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bidgood, of Richmond, are spending some with friends at Virginia Beach.

Miss Annie Ayres and Miss Eliza-beth Hite, of Danville, are guests of Mrs. Augustus Booth, at Ginter Park.

Mrs. Gertrude Henry, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. T. C. Elkington at her home in this city. Noland Lacks, who has been visiting friends in Norfolk, Newport News of the home at Noland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Wright, of this city, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rowe, in Hampton.

the Brunswick Inn, in Waynesboro,

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Epps and Miss Virginia Lee Epps are guests at the Gardner Cottage, at Virginia Beach.

and Mrs. Charles M. Langhorne, of this city, are registered at Crock-ett Springs for the month of August.

White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. James Swart and Miss Clara Swart have returned to Leesburg, after a trip to Old Peint and Richmond. Francis Bolton, of this city, is spend-

Mrs. Julian Binford, of Richmond, is story, for this is the tale of how you true! can win $300 in gold.

usual newspaper "contest."

4. You do not have to do anything except see how well you can solve a series of clever pictures, which will be printed in The Times-Dispatch.

5. Each picture will represent the fully it m title of a book.

6. And The Times-Dispatch is going to give $1,200 to those who come closest to naming the seventy-seven book titles that the seventy-seven pictures will represent.

7. Extra: The seventy-seven book titles to be represented by the seventy-seven pictures were selected from a list of 5,000 book titles. This list, containing the seventy-seven correct titles, will be issued to contestants. Each picture, mind you, will be drawn expressly to represent one book title only, and to represent it fairly, clearly, honestly, fully.

Watch for picture No. 1. It will appear soon-sooner than you may ex-

Clip the pictures from the paper as they appear day after day, and save them all until the seventy-seven pic-tures have been printed. Then send them all in together, with your answers.

Each set will be checked over care fully, and those coming closest to naming the seventy-seven correct titles will receive the awards. First prize may go to a person getting only seventyfive or seventy-six answers correct, you see. It is not necessary at all that you get all seventy-seven correct that you get all seventy-seven correct titles, in order to win.

No incomplete sets of answers will be considered. Each set must consist of at least one copy of each picture.

For seventy-seven days the seventy-seven days the seventy-seven pictures will appear in this newspaper, so be prepared to get the paper each day, so that you will not

Yes, win it! have the paper coming to your home shareholders. The Times-Dispatch is about to start each day, bringing the picture with it! These pro-

J.B. Mosby & Co.

HALHIMER'S Third Floor Atlammacks, AT THE HEIGHT OF THE SEASON THIS SALE OF "Dependable Hammocks"

All new, perfect, strong, and large assortment to choose

$4.50 Hammocks, $3.69 | $3.00 Hammocks, $1.89 $3.50 Hammocks, $2.48 | $1.75 Hammocks, $1.19 $1.50 Hammocks, sale 89c

Hammock Dept.

LAST WASHINGTON OF FAMILY IN AUSTRIA

Baron Sole Representative of Line From Which Came Famous American.

RARON GEORGE WASHINGTON, an officer on the reserve list of the Austrian cavalry, whose wife, family of the Counties of York any modification unto this day.

Northampton, which furnished the No house of the Italian nobility has States with its first President, contracted a greater number Dr. and Mrs. James P. Smith have born in 1788, played an important role gone to Lexington, where they will be in Bavarian history during the first the guests of Mrs. John W. Pratt, for three decades of the nineteenth cenfrom the crown of Bavaria to that of Austria, became the owner of the cha-teau and estate of Poels, and married Mrs. Decatur Axtell is spending the the royal Duchess Frederica, of Olden-ummer months at the Greenbrier burg, of the sovereign dynasty of that name, no objection being raised by her military household of the ruler of Baing the summer with relatives in Loudoun County.

Mrs. Frank J. McCarthy and small son are spending the summer at the Brunswick Inn, in Waynesboro.

same arms as his litustrious famesake in America, namely, the shield with three stars and two stripes, which was the origin of the present flag of the United States. He is a man of sixty, and, having no children, his branch of the Washington family bids fair to become extinct upon his death

Lewis Blair is the guest of friends One of the most extraordinary joint Mrs. Julian Binford, of Richmond, is in Waynesboro for the remainder of the summer.

Madam Louise Mellis-Foster, of the for several weeks. Miss Sydnor has been much entertained in Cleveland, and was guest of honor for the past week at a charming beach party given, on Lake Erie. She will also visit her

EVER HEARD OF AMONG MY BOOKS? THEN WIN $1,200 GOLD

This Great Free Game is for Everybody, Just Get Your Paper Each Day.

To-day may be the most glorious day of your life, you who are reading this story, for this is the tale of how you life, you who are reading this story, for this is the tale of how you life, you who are reading this story. And when you subscribe, you see, you Duchess of Wellington, are among the

Yes, win it!

The Times-Dispatch is about to start a unique game, called the "Booklovers' Contest," and these are the main and joyful features of the affair:

1. There is absolutely no work connected with it.

2. It is all play—all fascinating sport.

3. You do not have to canvass or in any way seek subscriptions, as in the usual newspaper "contest."

4. You do not have to do anything except see how well you can solve a except see how well you can solve a page of the paper coming to your home shareholders. These prominent members of high life below stairs exercise a considerable influence upon the purchases of one kind and another made by their employers, and by directing the trade to wards this company in which they hold stock, they profit, without exposing themselves to the charge of graft in the shape of extorting a percentage on the orders. It is only fair to the servants to add that their employers are the paper coming to your home each day, bringing the picture with it.

Now, turn to to-day's object lesson influence upon the purchases of one kind and another made by their employers, and by directing the trade to-influence upon the prochase of one kind and another made by their employers, and by directing the trade to-influence upon the prochase of the subject lesson picture, it was decided to run it as an object lesson pictures to show readers of this paper how clear and plain the actual contest pictures then. It is all play—all fascinating sport.

Turn to that object lesson picture with it.

Now, turn to to-day's object lesson life below stairs exercise a considerable life below stairs exercise a considerable life below that it.

There is absolutely no work connected with it.

Now, turn to to-day's object lesson life below stairs exercise a considerable lif You could have named that title, if you had looked at the pleture carefully, figured out what sort of a title, it must represent, and then looked into your catalogue of 5,000 book titles. This catalogue, which is guaranteed to contain the seventy-seven correct titles, will be issued to contestants shortly after the contest starts. At present the catalogue is being printed.

Watch for picture No. 1 soon!

ants to add that their employers are thoroughly aware of the enterprise, and approve of it, as it helps to insure the quality of the goods and the excellence of the service. If these prove inferior, it is the company which suffers quite as much, or even more, than the employers, and, therefore, it is to the interest of the servant-stockholders, and of the company which they own, to keep everything up to top-notch. During the first year they have made a gross profit of 45 per cent, which has enabled them to pay a hand-some dividend, and set something aside some dividend, and set something aside for a sinking fund. I need not point out another advantage which this catering company has over all other concerns, namely, that its sharehold-ers have peculiar facilities for seeing ers have peculiar facilities for seeing that its bills are promptly paid. For naturally, no man, be he duke or millionaire, be she peeress or nouveile riche, would care to face every day the slient, reproachful gaze of a person who appeared in the double capacity of a household servant and an overduce creditor. overdue creditor.

Don Paolo Ruspoli's death in Florence places in mourning his American wife, whom he married in Paris in 1888, as the widow of Joseph Karrick Riggs, of New York, where she had been born as Rosalie Van Zandt. He leaves two daughters by a former marriage namely one married to Major marriage, namely, one married to Major Tankerville Chamberlayne, of the Brit-ish army, and the other married to Constantine Vogorides, of Samos. But there is no issue by his second and Women.

is to him that those rare Americans Coels, near Graz, in Austria, is the last their office, designed by Michael Anof the Austrian branch of the old Eng- gelo, and which has never undergone

Mrs. A. T. Hurt is spending the summer months in the mountains of Virginia.

Miss Elizabeth and Carrie Willingham are registered at the Arlington Cottage, at Virginia Beach.

Enited States with its first President. The American Washingtons, as every one knows, are descended from that John Washington who, being concerned in an attempt to overthrow Oliver Cromwell, and to restore the old Stuart dynasty, was obliged to flee across the Atlantic, to join other reyalist exiles in Virginia. He was the president.

Contracted a greater number of alliances with Americans than that of the Ruspolis. Thus, the late Don Emmanuel Ruspoli, who was for so manuel Ruspoli, who was for some and the Ruspolis of the R reat-grandfather of George Washing-eldest son, Don Mario Ruspoli, was at-ton, the President of the United States. tached for several years to the Italian Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Smith and ington, a younger brother of John, and gord, whose mother, the Marquise de rs. Alvin M. Smith and spending some time at k inn, in Waynesboro.

In the battle of Worcester and at the storming of Bristol, under Prince paolo Ruspoli married, as I have mentally and the storming of Bristol, under Prince paolo Ruspoli married, as I have mentally and the storming of Bristol. Miss Katherine Kirby, of Gordons-ville, is visiting in this city, before leaving for a stay of several weeks at Buckroe Beach.

Hugert, settled in Bavaria, where, while retaining his Protestant faith, he became an officer in the Bavarian army and a Bavarian citizen. One of the became an officer in the person of the former Miss Euin the person of the former Miss Eu-genie Berry, of Oak Hill, Ga., whose engagement to Prince Philip Orsini has been announced; while still an-other Ruspoll, Don Camillo, has a half-American wife, in the person of Mar-guerite Blanc, daughter of the late Earon Blanc, Italian Minister of For-eign Affairs, and of his wife, Natalie ry, was created a baron by the King Bavaria, and died as a general of e army. He was also chief of the Terry, of New York.

King George is about to revive the use of the baton for admirals of the fleet, and there is no doubt that his example will be followed immediately by the German, Russian and Austrian Emperors. The rank of admiral of the fleet is the naval equivalent for the Mr. and Mrs Charles Bridges left last week to spend two weeks at Cape Henry.

Mrs. Lames Swart and Miss Charles Bridges left distinguished character of his ancestry. In Germany and Austria the admirals of the fleet are styled gross admiral, the first President of the United States, that when the duchess bore him field marshals of the army have a son, he insisted on naming him baton adorned with the royal arms, Baron George Washington bears the of their rank, which they carry same arms as his illustrious namesake their hands on all state occasions. use was abandoned prior to the acces bestowed by the English crown, among the recipients being the Duke of Cla-(afterwards William IV.), the Earl of St. Vincent, Lord Gambier and Admiral of the Fleet Williams Free-Admiral of the Fleet Williams Free-man, who died in 1832, and whose baton, blue and gold, is now preserved in the Museum of the Royal United Service Institution, at Whitehall, in London, It is a curious fact that England's greatest naval hero, namely, Nelson, Institution, at Whitehall, in London. It is a curious fact that England's greatest naval hero, namely, Nelson, should never have received this honor Company.)

relish a bowl of these fine crisps in cream or milk at lunch time and late in the afternoon-as well as for breakfast.

Washington CRISPS 10c. The BIG Package of Toasted Corn Flakes - 10c.

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole Oxfords, $2.25. ALBERT STEIN

Corner 5th and Broad

Specialists in Apparel for Broad at Second.

NEW COURTHOUSE ON FAMOUS SITE

Capital of One-Time State of Franklin Scene of Many Notable Trials.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., July 20 .- The town of opening of its new $60,000 courthouse, which has been equipped with electric illumination and all modern conveniences. This event is of nation-wide interest from an historical viewpoint, for the result of the convenience o tice" established west of the Allefirst building was creeted in 1784, remarkable one.

Colonial pattern, which was creeted in rious charge. The woman paid the 1845. This building was condemned fine and both went away. Runion this last year because the mortar between time ventured back to town and was the bricks had become rotten, render- arrested for violating his parole.

ing the walls insecure.

The new building is in marked contrast with the first courthouse, and this contrast emphasizes something of the wonderful progress this county has made by reason of inventions discoveries since the days of the first "temple of justice."

The Jonesboro people, although cherishing all the old relies and memories near Gordonsville, will begin July 25 revolutionary days, because many of them are descended from revolu-tionary stock, are, nevertheless, very proud of their new modern courthouse.

NEWS OF EASTERN SHORE

Onancock, Va., July 20.—B. T., Jr., son of ex-Senator B. T. Gunter, is quite sick with typhoid fever at "Willow-bank," the home of his parents.

Work has begun on the new brick Bessie Don men men men T. B. Robertson, W. H. Fitz-Hugh and W. G. Hurtt, candidates for floater delegate to the General Assembly, from Accomac and Northampton, subject to the primary, addressed the citizens of the service of the servi primary, addressed the citizens of Onancock Thursday evening.

The new house of John S. Ames, at Painter, was wrecked by lightning. Nearly all the roof was torn off, the shutters were demolished, the mantels were moved from the chimneys, and the plastering was knocked down in several rooms. Mrs. Ames was badly stunned, but the other members of the family escaped injury.

Rumor says that the Scaboard Fish and Guano Company will close their factories at Reedville, and use their boats to fish for their factory at Tom's Potatoes have been much higher during the week, selling from $1.85 to $2.25. Last Wednesday morning there were 6,000 barrels on the Onancock wharf. Two steamers loaded for Bal-timore, and at night 6,000 barrels remained. As fast as the truckers moved a barrel the place was filled with an-other. The rush is expected to con-tinue through next week. The farmers are unable to get truck barrels. Many of them sleep outside the barrel factories so as to get first turn when the doors are opened in the morning. Most of the potatoes that are shipped via Baltimore go to the West and Northwest, some being sent as far West as Colorado, others as far North as Canada. Elton Moore, who runs crabs from accident Saturday. He caught out the Shore. should never have received this honor.

But then he died without attaining the summit of his profession, namely, the rank of admiral of the fleet.
(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood Company.)

entered the body of Fluhart's wife catered the body of Fluhart's wife, killing her instantly. An inquest was held, at which Fluhart was exonerated. Mrs. Fluhart was the daughter of Charles Carmine, of Chescannessex. Her remains were taken to his house, where the funeral services were held. Interment was made in Mt. Holly Cemetery. Mrs. Frances Killmon, of Melfa, widow of Patrick Killmon, was taken to a Baltimore hospital two weeks ago, suffering with cancer of the eye. After operating upon her teh doctors saw there was no hope of her recovery Being anxious to get home, they al-lowed her to start, accompanied by a nurse and several members of her famhurse and several members of her family. She died on the steamer Maryland as the boat was entering Onancock Creek. Funeral services were held at Hollies Baptist Church Sunday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. J. T. Hoskins. She left four children—George, Lee and Payne Killmon, and George, Lee and Payne Killmon, and one daughter—Mrs. Southey Belole.

Mrs. Emma Mapp, widow of John W. Mapp, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Mears, of Belle Haven, aged sixty-one years. After funeral services, conducted at her home by Rev. W. G. Pendleton, rector of Christ Church, burial was made in the Belle Haven Cemetery. She is survived by two sons—W. C. and A. D. Mapp, and four daughters—Mrs. A. A. Mears, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson and Miss Helen Mapp, of Belle Haven, and Mrs. L. H. Wyatt, of Hampton. of Hampton.

A meeting was held at Keller Satur-dry afternoon by the subscribers of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia, looking to the institution of proceedings before the State Corporation Commission to correct the alleged inefficient telephone system on the Shore. Hon. N. B. Wes-cott was chairman of the meeting and S. J. Ross secretary.

WATER POWER LINES
MAY GO TO ABINGDON.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Bristol, Va., July 20.—The Doherty Company, which recently purchased the hydro-electric power plant of the Watauga Power Company on the Wa-Watauga Power Company on the Watauga River, twenty miles south of Bristol, is now negotiating with the town of Abingdon, fitteen miles cast of Bristol, with a view to supplying power and light for that town. The representative of the company has also made an investigation as to the advisability of establishing a trackless trolley car system between Bristol and Abingdon, and extending the system to other near-by towns. The impression is that this will be favorably reported upon to the Eastern parties proposing to establish the system, since much is now being done in the way of building stone roads through the counties of Southwest Virginia and East Tennessee.

Gold Watches

We carry at all times the most rep-resentative patterns of the world's best resentative patterns of the watch specialists.

Prospective watch buyers will do well to consult our stocks and prices.

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS.

WILLIAM RUNION IN TROUBLE AGAIN

less go back to the penitentiary for a remarkable one. He left a slow-burn-ing fuse in his house and then boarded the train for Louisa County. The fuse chimney of riven timber and mortar joints. This "temple" served as the place of many notable trials in the days of John Sevier and through the period of the Revolution.

The train for Louisa County. The tust was timed to ignite with rags and keroscene six hours later, but a hitch in the arrangements gave the thing away and a neighbor, seeing smoke, got into the house and prevented the fire. A telepton of the reliable to the county of the reliable to the reliable to the county of the reliable to the re period of the Revolution.

It was here that John Sevier and his followers laid their plans for a part in the battle of King's Mountain, which turned the tide of the American Revolution. This old house was torn away later, and the next courthouse for Jonesboro was a brick structure of Jonesboro was a brick structure of

MEETING OF ASSEMBLY.

Piedmont Disciples of Christ Will Convene Near Gordonsville. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., July 20.—T

Piedmont Assembly, held annually and conducted by the Disciples of Christ and close on August 3. While it represents the work of the local district, which includes quite a number of the which includes quite a number of the surrounding counties, visitors from the Christian churches throughout the State attend. The Christian Woman's Eoard of Missions Day, July 30, will have as its principal speaker Mrs. Har-riet Ruger Longdon, of Indianapolis, superintendent of Young People's Work. The various cottages on the assembly rounds will begin to fill up within the ext few days. Excursion trains will

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Gignature of Che H. Thitities

If, when on your vacation, you should happen to break your glasses, mail them to us, and we will repair and return them THE DAY RECEIVED. I Should you lose them, we will be pleased to send a duplicate pair. I We have an accurate and detailed record of every pair of

The S. GALESK Optical Co KODAK Main and

Headquarters

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges PETTIT & CO.'S?

Vacation Shoes in endless variety. Special prices on White Canvas Shoes and Pumps.

DETROIT GAS HANGES. ALASKA REFRIGERATORS, OLD HICKORY PURSITURE SOLD ONLY BY

EASTMAN KODAKS,

$1.00 to $60.00,

Tragle's

Gas Ranges Reduced 10% 4th and BROAD STS.

